

Loan Trust

This deed is provided as a draft to be considered by you and your professional adviser. We can accept no responsibility for the tax or any other consequences arising out of you executing this deed, or for ensuring that the deed meets with your requirements.

The Loan Trust is designed to enable the Settlor (or Settlors) to make a gift of the growth of their investment whilst still allowing access to the original capital.

For more information about the Loan Trust, please refer to our Guide to Trusts and the Loan Trust Case Study.

Completing the trust form

Under Tax Regulations and intergovernmental agreements entered into by the Isle of Man in relation to the automatic exchange of information for tax matters (collectively "AEOI"), Friends Provident International is required to collect information about each Settlor, Trustee and Named Beneficiaries of trusts. (Where any of the Named Beneficiaries are minors, this will be required once they reach 18 years old.)

Friends Provident International will provide the information directly to the Isle of Man Income Tax Division (IOMITD) who may then provide the same information to the relevant jurisdiction. Friends Provident International does not send any information direct to other jurisdictions.

Specified US Person means a US citizen or tax resident individual who has a US residential/correspondence address or who either holds a US Passport, a US Green Card or who was born in the US and has not yet renounced their US citizenship. More information on US FATCA can be found at: www.irs.gov/Businesses/Corporations/Foreign-Account-Tax-Compliance-Act-FATCA

If you choose Yes to being a Specified US Person, you will need to provide us with your US Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) or US Social Security Number (SSN).

If you choose No but you have a US residential/correspondence address, hold a US Passport, a US Green Card or you were born in the US, you will need to provide us with documentary evidence that you are in the process of or have renounced your US Citizenship. Friends Provident International can accept a certified copy of your DS-4083 form (also known as CLN – Certificate of Loss of Nationality) and/or a certified copy of your passport in which you are obtaining new citizenship.

(The numbering denotes the relevant clause in the trust form.)

The Settlor – Creating the Trust

The trust form should be completed by the Settlor, i.e. the person or persons who are making the Loan. There may be a maximum of two Settlors for this type of Trust.

A(i) The trust form must be dated on or before the date of the Loan Agreement. The Trustees will complete the application for an offshore policy and should date any such application after the date of the Loan Agreement.

Who are the Trustees?

The Trustees are the recipients of the Loan from the Settlor and will be the legal owners of the bond(s) or other asset(s) to be acquired by them with the Loan funds, upon trust for the benefit of the person(s) specified in the Trust.

B(i) As you cannot loan money to yourself, for the trust to be effective, there must be at least one Trustee entered at B(ii), who is not a Settlor. However, up to four trustees may be nominated. We strongly suggest that either two individuals or one trust company be appointed, and that one of the Trustees be independent, i.e. someone who is not a beneficiary of the Trust. Individual Trustees must be aged 18 or over.

F(ii) The Settlor may appoint new Trustees to act with the existing Trustees of the Trust or to replace retiring Trustees. After the Settlor's death, (or the death of both Settlors where more than one) the Trustees may appoint Trustees.

F(iii) The Settlor, so long as there is one Trustee still acting after the removal, may remove a Trustee from office.

What is included in the Trust?

B(iv) The Loan money which is then invested by the Trustees in one or more offshore policies or other assets.

The Named Beneficiaries

B(vii) The Settlor must specify Named Beneficiaries whichever form of trust he chooses. If the Settlor chooses the Bare Trust form the Named Beneficiaries will benefit in the Appropriate Shares. If the Discretionary Trust is chosen the Named Beneficiaries are the persons who will benefit in the Appropriate Shares in default of the Trustees' exercising fully their dispositive powers, i.e. if the Trustees omit to make an appointment in favour of one or more persons from the list of Discretionary Beneficiaries at B(vii) (see below), or if the Trustees make an appointment of some but not all of the trust assets.

In the case of a Bare Trust, the Named Beneficiaries and the Appropriate Shares cannot be altered after the Trust is created. In the case of the Discretionary Trust option, the Trustees can always exercise their discretion in favour of any of the Discretionary Beneficiaries, and the Settlor can always add new Discretionary Beneficiaries (see The Discretionary Beneficiaries below).

In either case the Settlor or their spouse/civil partner must not be a Named Beneficiary in order to ensure that the tax effectiveness of the Trust is not prejudiced.

If a Named Beneficiary dies, where the Bare Trust is chosen then his share passes to his estate. If the Discretionary Trust option is taken the share of a Named Beneficiary may be appointed away by the Trustees to any of the Discretionary Beneficiaries at any time during the Trust Period, whether or not the Named Beneficiary has died.

The Discretionary Beneficiaries

B(viii) This provision only applies if the Discretionary Trust option is selected.

The Discretionary Trust form gives a range of Discretionary Beneficiaries in whose favour the Trustees may appoint the whole or part of the Trust Fund, either permanently or revocably. This means that the Trustees can override the Settlor's choice of Named Beneficiaries and Appropriate Shares. During the Settlor's lifetime, however, this can only happen with his consent (see clause E(i), proviso (A)).

An appointment is effected by a simple signed and witnessed deed made by the Trustees.

Subject to any such appointment any income of the Trust Fund, unless accumulated, is distributable as it arises among the Discretionary Beneficiaries, in such shares as the Trustees, acting unanimously, decide. This decision does not depend on a Deed of Appointment being executed.

The Discretionary Beneficiaries include the Named Beneficiaries, the Settlor's children, remoter issue and siblings and the current, former or surviving spouses or civil partners of any of the foregoing. The Settlor may add additional persons to the class of Discretionary Beneficiaries by completing the space provided at B(vii)(f). The Settlor may also add additional persons to the class of Discretionary Beneficiaries at any time by a signed document given to the Trustees while he is alive or by will, or by both methods.

The Settlor must not be included as a Discretionary Beneficiary, as this will prejudice the tax effectiveness of the Trust.

Choosing the form of Trust

C. The Settlor must sign the appropriate box to choose between the Bare Trust form and the Discretionary Trust form. If the Settlor signs the Bare Trust box in Part C, the applicable trust provisions will be those in Part D. If the Settlor signs the Discretionary Trust box in Part C, the applicable trust provisions will be those in Part E. Where there are two Settlors, both must agree on and sign the relevant boxes.

Signing the Trust

K. The trust deed must be signed by the Settlor(s) and Trustee(s) before a witness who must sign against each signature. The witness must be independent, over 18 and not a relative of the person whose signature is being witnessed.

The Loan Agreement

When should the Agreement be completed?

The Agreement must be dated on or after the date of the Declaration of Trust but before the date of the application for an offshore policy.

Who are the parties to the Agreement?

1. This is completed by the person who is the Settlor under the Loan Agreement and the Trustees.

What is covered by the Agreement?

The Loan Agreement should specify the date of the Declaration of Trust and the amount of the Loan.

How will the Loan be Repaid?

The Agreement should specify the amount to be repaid to the Settlor annually. To avoid any immediate UK Income Tax charge the amount should not exceed 5 % of the amount invested by the Trustees in the purchase of the offshore policy.

Who signs the Agreement?

The Agreement must be signed by the Settlor and the Additional Trustees.

Request to Trustees for Loan Repayment

This document should be completed if the Settlor wishes subsequently to vary the amount being repaid. It is addressed to the Trustees of the Trust and specifies the amount to be repaid immediately. The balance of the Loan must be repaid through future requests for Loan repayments. It should be borne in mind that an increase in the rate of the Loan repayment could give rise to a UK Income Tax liability. This form is available on request.

Loan Trust

Please complete this form using BLOCK CAPITALS throughout.

A. Declaration

This Declaration of Trust is made on (note that this should be dated prior to the Loan Agreement and the application form for the policy)

The Definitions in Part B, to the extent that they are applicable, shall have the meanings set out in that Part.

If the Settlor signs the Bare Trust box in Part C the applicable trust provisions will be those in Part D. If the Settlor signs the Discretionary Trust box in Part C the applicable trust provisions will be those in Part E. Where there are two Settlers both must agree on and sign the relevant boxes.

The provisions in Parts F, G, H and I apply in any event.
